

GRAND TWO DAY MUSICAL FESTIVAL SCHEDULED HERE FOR CHAUTAUQUA WEEK

MARCUS A. KELLERMAN

DENTON
GRAND OPERA
CO.BOHUMIR KRYL
AND HIS

CATHEDRAL CHOIR

An important and interesting feature of Chautauqua week here will be a grand two day musical festival, during which days, aside from the morning hour lectures, there will be nothing but music. On one day of this festival Marcus A. Kellerman, the great dramatic baritone, who has appeared in solos with the Damrosch Orchestra, the Theodore Thomas Orchestra, Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra and other widely known organizations, will give a recital. Mr. Kellerman has also appeared in grand opera, in Berlin and other foreign cities, but gave up a promising career in grand opera to engage in recitals and oratorio singing.

In the evening of this same day the Cathedral choir will appear in one of its notable musical programs. The repertoire of the Cathedral choir includes short modern oratorios by such composers as Buck, Stainer and Schaefer, also a number of old hymns, secular solos, duets, quartets and choruses of a very high order, finally closing with a grand finale of an operatic nature.

On the next day of this festival Bohumir Kryl and his world famous band will present a program in the afternoon, including cornet solos by Mr. Kryl.

In the evening of this same day Kryl and his band will be heard in another concert during the first part of the program, and the latter part will be given up to selections from grand opera by the Denton Grand Opera Company, accompanied by the band. These grand opera players will appear in special costume. In fact, it will be a grand finale, to these two days such as has never before been seen at a Chautauqua.

LOVES DREAM INTERRUPTED

Tom Hogan Loses His Girl
Wife On Way To His Home.

When Tom Hogan, aged 57, married little Callie Cobb, Friday, more bad luck began. He had just been divorced from wife No. 3 and although the old man was armed with papers to get a license to marry Callie, who is only 16, his honeymoon started with rough sailing.

The couple left immediately for the groom's home in the eastern part of the county, but just before reaching it they were met by the girl's father, who, Hogan claims, was armed with a big pistol and who commanded the girl to get out of the buggy with her newly-made husband and go home. Cobb then told Hogan to go "the other way."

Both orders were obeyed and Hogan returned to town and intimated that he will take legal proceedings to reclaim his girl wife. The marriage license was issued on what purported to be a permit from the girl's father. Hogan insists this was genuine and voluntarily given, and that he can't account for the sudden and violent change in his father-in-law's mood.

Hogan is a well known citizen and was a candidate for the Republican nomination for judge last summer, but withdrew before the primary was held. He was granted a divorce from his third wife a few weeks ago. Under Kentucky laws the court costs must be settled before such decrees are really effective, and this formal had to be met before the license could be issued.

Another Assassination.

The body of Porfirio Laurel, an American ranchman, who disappeared last November, was recovered Sunday from a grave near Nuevo Laredo, Mexico. Laurel had been arrested by Mexican federalists who persistently denied reports of his execution and until the body was exhumed the mystery of the Texan's absence was unexplained. Recovery of the ranchman's body was made possible by the evacuation of Nuevo Laredo by the federalists. Rebel officers commanding the constitutional forces which now occupies the town interposed no objections. It was fully identified.
